

MEMBER (AM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Royal Australian Navy

Warrant Officer Christopher Robert GARNER, WA

For exceptional service as the Deputy Marine Engineering Officer HMAS Rankin, and with Sea Training Unit Submarines from December 2003 to October 2008.

Warrant Officer Garner has been instrumental in maintaining a highly trained and ready submarine force. He is an exceptional sailor who has excelled in his chosen field of marine engineering and is an inspiration to all sailors of the submarine service.

Commodore Raymond James GRIGGS CSC RAN, ACT

For exceptional service to the Royal Australian Navy as the Amphibious Task Group Commander, Deputy Fleet Commander, Director General Navy Strategic Policy and Futures, and as Director General Force Structure Review for the Defence White Paper.

Commodore Griggs has delivered the highest levels of excellence in all aspects of his remarkable career. He is an outstanding Naval officer of the very highest calibre who has achieved the exceptional standards of leadership, professional achievement, vision and wisdom. His efforts have positively influenced the current and future capability of the Royal Australian Navy.

Australian Army

Brigadier David Colin GILLIAN, ACT

For exceptional service to the Australian Army as the Director General Intelligence, and as the inaugural Commanding Officer, 1st Intelligence Battalion.

Brigadier Gillian has driven profound organisational change within the intelligence community as Director General Intelligence, Headquarters Joint Operations Command and as the inaugural Commanding Officer, 1st Intelligence Battalion. His leadership, professionalism and dedication during a period of significant change have been instrumental in establishing the Intelligence Directorate of Headquarters Joint Operations Command and its provision of timely and effective intelligence support to the planning and conduct of Australian Defence Force operations.

Brigadier Peter Warwick GILMORE DSC, ACT

For exceptional service as Director General Public Affairs, and as Director General Future Land Warfare.

As Director General Public Affairs, Brigadier Gilmore was instrumental in the timely and accurate delivery of information that projected the image of the Australian Defence Force positively and professionally at all times. As Director General Future Land Warfare he oversaw the writing of capstone concepts that guide the development of the Australian Army's capabilities, including the Army Continuous Modernisation Process and Adaptive Campaigning. His exceptional contribution is in keeping with the finest traditions of the Australian Army and the Australian Defence Force.

MEMBER (AM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Royal Australian Air Force

Air Commodore James Michael BROWN, NSW

For exceptional service as the Director of Plans in Air Command, as the Officer Commanding Number 92 Wing, and as the Director General of Operations in Joint Operations Command.

Air Commodore Brown has shown exceptional leadership, organisational skills and character as the Director General of Joint Operations, the Director of Plans in Air Command, and as the Officer Commanding Number 92 Wing. His calm and thoughtful leadership in these challenging appointments has been crucial at a time of great operational stress and workload. His achievements are of the highest order and in keeping with the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Air Force and the Australian Defence Force.

Group Captain Andrew Phillip DOYLE CSM, ACT

For exceptional service in management of the acquisition of the C-17 aircraft, as an acquisition management team member and as Project Director Air 8000 PH3-Heavy Airlift Project.

Group Captain Doyle's exceptional performance in the field of complex project management has ensured that the accelerated acquisition of the Boeing C-17 aircraft fleet, and associated logistical support program and technical airworthiness approvals, have been completed in record time and allowed for the delivery of a significant inter-operable and responsive global airlift capability to the Royal Australian Air Force.