MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE GENERAL DIVISION

Sister Maria (Mary Bridget) CASEY, Croydon NSW 2132

For service to the community as Postulator for the Canonisation of Mary MacKillop, and to the Catholic Church in Australia.

Sister Maria, in conjunction with Father Paul Gardiner, has made significant contributions to the international recognition of Australia's first Roman Catholic Saint, Mary MacKillop. The process began in the 1920s, resulting in the completion of phase one, the beatification, in 1995 under the leadership of Father Gardiner from the 1980s. Sister Maria, appointed vice-postulator by Father Gardiner in 2001 worked with him to prepare for phase two, the recognition of Mary MacKillop as a saint for the whole world; in other words, her Canonisation. Sister Maria prepared a dossier outlining evidence of the recognition of Mary world-wide and presented it to Pope John Paul II at an audience in 2003 and an updated version to Pope Benedict XVI in 2008. Sister Maria undertook the extensive procedural processes required to establish the case for the Canonisation with the Holy See. Pope Benedict XVI approved the Canonisation of Mary MacKillop to Sainthood on 19 February 2010.

Postulator for the Cause of the Canonisation of Mary MacKillop, since 2008; Vice-Postulator, 2001-2008.

As Vice-Postulator, assisted Father Gardiner in the research and documentation for the Cause of the Canonisation of Mary MacKillop until 2008.

As Postulator, relocated to Rome for 3 years to complete the process required for the Canonisation, especially that required for the second miracle attributed to Mary MacKillop. This was approved by the Vatican in December 2009. The case for the Canonisation of Mary MacKillop was completed when Sister Maria wrote a formal petition to Pope Benedict XVI to request that he canonise her acknowledging her as a saint of the world.

Chairman of the Board, Mary MacKillop Canonisation company.

Held key roles in the planning and organisation of the Canonisation Mass and Ceremony in Rome on 17 October 2010.

Liaised with the Congregation for the Causes of Saints, Office for the Papal Liturgies, Postulators and authorities.
