

MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Royal Australian Navy

Warrant Officer Sharon Eileen CAMPBELL, Vic

For meritorious service in the field of Leadership and Recruit training in the Royal Australian Navy.

Warrant Officer Campbell has distinguished herself as a role model to others throughout her career. Over the past six years, she enhanced the Royal Australian Navy's leadership training for sailors, and developed the Leadership Pillar of the New Generation Navy program. Her selfless efforts, verve and tenacity have inspired the next generation of sailors to be the best that they can be. Warrant Officer Campbell is an exemplar of the Royal Australian Navy's leadership, values and signature behaviours.

Australian Army

Warrant Officer Class One A,

For meritorious service to the Australian Army.

Details not available at the request of the Department of Defence.

Warrant Officer Class One Paul Charles BEADLE, Vic

For meritorious performance of duty as the Warrant Officer Supply, Deployable Logistic Information Systems Support Team from 2007 to 2010.

Warrant Officer Beadle, through his outstanding technical logistic information systems knowledge and his exceptional expertise on operational supply chain processes and procedures, has contributed extensively to efficient and effective combat service support to deployed operations in multiple theatres including Operations CATALYST, SLIPPER and ASTUTE. He has skilfully guided the implementation of a complex and large new logistic system, and has worked tirelessly to ensure effective use of, and support from, a large number of logistic systems across Australia's deployed forces.

Warrant Officer Class One Stephan Andrew COLMAN, Vic

For meritorious service as the Regimental Sergeant Major of 12th/40th Battalion, the Royal Tasmanian Regiment and 6th Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment.

Warrant Officer Colman's dedication and leadership as a Regimental Sergeant Major have been pivotal in developing the skills and combat effectiveness of the soldiers with whom he has served. He has made an outstanding contribution to the Australian Army and the Australian Defence Force.

MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Warrant Officer Class One Brent Alexander DOYLE, Vic

For meritorious service as the Regimental Sergeant Major of 4th Combat Engineer Regiment and 3rd Combat Engineer Regiment.

Warrant Officer Doyle's military professionalism has strongly impacted on the capability of the 4th Combat Engineer Regiment and the 3rd Combat Engineer Regiment. Warrant Officer Doyle's performance has been consistently of the highest order and he has made an outstanding contribution to the Australian Army and the Australian Defence Force.

Warrant Officer Class Two Craig Stuart DUNCAN, Vic

For meritorious performance of duty, including as the Company Sergeant Major, 4th Brigade Reserve Response Force, in Defence aid to the community of Victoria during fires and floods from 2009 to 2011.

Warrant Officer Duncan rendered meritorious service to the community of Victoria through his outstanding professionalism and conduct during the emergency responses to the floods of September 2010 and January 2011 and the fires of February 2009. His dedication to improving the procedures and training of personnel for emergencies of this type has seen a significantly improved level of capability by the Australian Army in Victoria. His achievements are in keeping with the finest traditions of the 2nd Division, the Australian Army and the Australian Defence Force.

Warrant Officer Class One John James MILLER, NT

For meritorious service to the introduction into the Australian Army of the Abrams Main Battle Tank and as the Regimental Artificer Sergeant Major of the 1st Armoured Regiment.

Warrant Officer Miller was instrumental in the introduction of the Abrams Main Battle Tank capability into the Australian Army. His dedication has been fundamental in achieving the successful integration of the Abrams tank into the 1st Armoured Regiment.

Warrant Officer Class One Darren James MURCH, NSW

For meritorious service as the Regimental Sergeant Major of 8th/7th Battalion, the Royal Victoria Regiment, 1st Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment and the Mentoring and Reconstruction Task Force Two.

Warrant Officer Murch's professionalism and devotion to duty has directly enhanced the capability and reputation of both 8th/7th Battalion, the Royal Victoria Regiment and 1st Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment, ensuring successful outcomes for recruiting, retention and operational capability. His technical knowledge and desire to develop and support soldiers have had an enduring impact on soldiers and commanders in war and peace.

MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Royal Australian Air Force

Wing Commander Geoffrey Bowen KIMMINS CSC, ACT

For meritorious service in the Directorate of Flying Safety, Maintenance Management and Planning Implementation, and the School of Technical Training.

Wing Commander Kimmins' meritorious service and leadership in the Directorate of Flying Safety directly enhanced flying safety through his expert analysis of aircraft accidents. Further, his expertise in maintenance governance has delivered innovations which have significantly improved the quantity and quality of graduates from the School of Technical Training for the Australian Defence Force.