

MEDAL (OAM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Royal Australian Navy

Chief Petty Officer Raymond John BEASY CSM, Vic

For meritorious service in the field of Naval Gunnery and Seamanship.

Chief Petty Officer Beasy is an inspirational leader who has distinguished himself during a range of challenging naval postings over 27 years. He has provided the highest levels of Seamanship and Gunnery service and training. A hallmark of his career is his innate ability to nurture and guide young men and women to reach their potential and become seamanship and gunnery experts and leaders in their own right. In so doing, Chief Petty Officer Beasy has directly contributed to the operational capability of the Royal Australian Navy now and into the future.

Commander Lewis Patrick GAHA RAN, ACT

For meritorious service as the Navy Reserve Career Manager, Elections Liaison Officer for the United Nations Assistance Mission in Iraq, Director of Navy Ministerial Coordination, and Director of Navy Reputation Management.

Commander Gaha has provided dedicated and solid service over many years in demanding and diverse roles for the Royal Australian Navy and the Australian Defence Force. The extent of his passion is demonstrated in the results and successes he has achieved in his often complex, sensitive and demanding professional duties. His service to Navy and the broader community has been of the highest order and in the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Navy and the Australian Defence Force.

Australian Army

Warrant Officer Class One Ian Albert D'ARCY, NSW

For meritorious service as Regimental Sergeant Major of 9th Battalion, the Royal Queensland Regiment, 8th/9th Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment, and the Mentoring Task Force Four in Afghanistan 2012.

Warrant Officer D'Arcy's inspirational example, exceptional leadership qualities and commitment to the mentoring of junior soldiers have markedly enhanced the capabilities of countless young Australian, East Timorese and Afghan soldiers. He has demonstrated unwavering professionalism, devotion to duty and a proven ability to motivate, train and inspire others in challenging and dangerous environments, regardless of station or race.

MEDAL (OAM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Warrant Officer Class One Matthew John DINGLEY, ACT

For meritorious service to the Australian Army in a variety of personnel management and force structure modernisation roles.

Warrant Officer Dingley is an inspirational soldier who has provided dedicated service to the Australian Army in a variety of personnel management and force structure modernisation roles. He has made a significant and enduring personal and professional contribution to the management of Army's personnel and the modernisation of Army's Force Structures in a period of significant and fundamental change. Warrant Officer Dingley's contributions are of the highest order and in keeping with the traditions of the Australian Army and the Australian Defence Force.

Major Peter Morton GREEN, NSW

For meritorious service as Regimental Sergeant Major of the Incident Response Regiment, the 8th Combat Engineer Regiment, and the 16th Aviation Brigade.

Major Green's performance as Regimental Sergeant Major has been exceptional. His professionalism and dedication have inspired subordinates and superiors alike to achieve their fullest potential and encouraged them to accept greater responsibilities. Major Green's knowledge, skills and attitude, coupled with commendable moral courage and personal standards, have made a substantial contribution over a sustained period in a key leadership role in several unique Australian Army Units and Formations.

Major Jason Ross GREGSON, Qld

For meritorious performance of duty as Operations Officer, 138th Signal Squadron, Officer-in-Charge of Force Protection, and Instructor in Advanced Training Wing of the Defence Force School of Signals.

Major Gregson displayed outstanding foresight and technical ability in developing Defence's Voice-over Internet Protocol Helpdesk, leading to significant cost savings, enhancing service levels and improving the skills of Army technicians. Major Gregson led the redevelopment of signals planning training for officers and warrant officers, aligning the training environment to real-life operational scenarios.

MEDAL (OAM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Warrant Officer Class Two Jason Glenn STAFFORD, NSW

For meritorious performance of duty as an Army Physical Training Instructor at the Royal Military College, and Manager Physical Training and Wing Sergeant Major to Trainee Rehabilitation Wing, School of Military Engineering.

Warrant Officer Stafford demonstrated his commitment, work ethic and expertise for trainee rehabilitation management in support of Army's injured and ill staff cadets and initial employment trainee soldiers. An exceptional Warrant Officer, his leadership and initiatives have ensured that injured trainees are returned to Army's training continuum sooner; recovered from injury or illness and reconditioned to ensure they are physically and mentally fit to continue in their military career.

Royal Australian Air Force

Warrant Officer Brenton Alan BELL, SA

For meritorious service to the Royal Australian Air Force in leadership and safety.

Warrant Officer Bell has provided most meritorious service to the Royal Australian Air Force for over a decade. He is an exceptional Flight Engineer who has continuously demonstrated inspirational leadership, superior technical mastery and outstanding dedication to the Air Force and its people. His exceptional contributions to morale and aviation safety have provided an enduring positive legacy on the maintenance culture and operational capability of Number 92 Wing.

Group Captain Carl Frederick SCHILLER CSM, Vic

For meritorious service to the Royal Australian Air Force in Reserve development and management.

Group Captain Carl Schiller's outstanding dedication and thorough professionalism in the development of the Air Force Reserve for more than a decade have been simply inspirational. He is an exemplary Senior Officer whose exceptional performance, remarkable vision and unwavering dedication to the Reserve have made a significant contribution in developing the personnel capability of the Royal Australian Air Force.