

COMPANION (AC) IN THE GENERAL DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Emeritus Professor Denise Irene BRADLEY AO,

1302/1 Francis Street, Darlinghurst NSW 2010

For service to higher education through leadership and sector-wide governance, to the promotion of information-based distance learning, and to the advancement of Australian educational facilities internationally.

Professor Bradley was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia in The Queen's Birthday 1995 Honours List for her service to education and to educational policy in schools and universities, particularly in relation to access and equity for women and girls. The following summarises her service and achievements since then.

Vice-Chancellor, University of South Australia, 1996-May 2007; Deputy Vice-Chancellor, 1992-1996; Professor Bradley retired as Vice-Chancellor of the University in May 2007; upon her retirement Professor Bradley was appointed Emeritus Professor of the University.

Chairman, Australian Technical Network of Universities, since 2005.

President, International Development Program Education Australia, since 2005; Member, Board of Directors, since 2004.

Executive Member, International Association of University Presidents, since 2005; Treasurer, 2002-2005.

Director, Australian-American Fulbright Commission, since 2005.

Board Member, Education Adelaide, since 1998.

Director, Open Universities Australia, since 1997.

Member, Board of Directors, Australian Vice-Chancellors' Committee (now Universities Australia), 2003-2007; served as Chairman of the Education Committee during this time.

Member, Board of Directors, Business/Higher Education Round Table, 1995-2007.

Chairman, South Australian Vice-Chancellors' Committee, 2006.

Director, Global University Alliance, 2000-2004.

Member, Council of Governor's Leadership Foundation, 2002-2004.

Member, Commonwealth Higher Education Review Reference Group, 2002.

Director, Australian Universities Quality Agency, 2000-2003.

Trustee, VivaSA, since 1997.

Committee Member, Adelaide Festival Arts Writers' Week, since 1994.

Other awards/recognition include:

Centenary Medal, 2001.

South Australian of the Year, Australia Day Council of South Australia, 2005.

Honorary Doctorate, University of South Australia, 2007.

Honorary Doctorate, RMIT University, 2007.

Honorary Doctorate, Pukyong National University, South Korea, 2006.

COMPANION (AC) IN THE GENERAL DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

The Honourable Sir John Leslie CARRICK KCMG,

Unit 21 'Cambridge Apartments', 162E Burwood Road, Concord NSW 2137

For distinguished service in the area of educational reform in Australia, particularly through the advancement of early childhood education and to the development and support of new initiatives in the tertiary sector, and to the broader community.

The Honourable Sir John Carrick KCMG was appointed a Knight Commander of the Order of St Michael and St George in 1982 in recognition of his service to the Parliament of Australia. The following summarises his service and achievements since then.

Chairman, Macquarie University Institute of Early Childhood Foundation, since 2001.

Member, Advisory Board, Macquarie University Institute of Early Childhood, 1992-2001.

Chairman, Advisory Committee, Gifted Education Research, Resource and Information Centre, University of NSW, 1998-2007.

President, University of Sydney Dermatology Research Foundation, 1988-2003.

Member, Commonwealth Government Roundtable (Indigenous), 2000-2002.

Member, Executive Committee, Foundation for Aged Care, 1990-2001.

Member, NSW Ministerial Advisory Council for Teacher Education, 1992-1995.

Chairman, Gas Council of NSW, 1990-1995.

Chairman, NSW Government Committee of Review into NSW Schools (known as the Carrick Committee), 1988-1989; conducted a Review of the implementation of the Committee's Report, 1990-1995.

Service to the Parliament of Australia since 1982 includes:

Senator for NSW (Liberal Party of Australia), 1971-1987.

Minister for National Development and Energy, 1979-1983.

Government Leader in the Senate, 1978-1983.

Other awards/recognition include:

Centenary Medal, 2001.

Carrick Institute for Learning and Teaching in Higher Education, named in his honour, 2004.

Honorary Doctorate, University of NSW.

Honorary Doctorate, Sydney University.

Honorary Doctorate, Macquarie University.

Honorary Doctorate, University of Western Sydney.

Honorary Fellow, Australian College of Educators.

COMPANION (AC) IN THE GENERAL DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

The Honourable Justice Susan Maree CRENNAN, Vic

For outstanding service to the law and the judiciary, particularly through leadership and mentoring roles with legal and professional associations, as a contributor to reform, and to the community.

Justice, High Court of Australia, since 2005.

Judge, Federal Court of Australia, 2004-2005.

Queen's Counsel - Victoria 1989, and NSW 1990.

Hearing Commissioner (part-time), Human Rights and Equal Opportunities Commission, 1992-1999.

Barrister, King's Inns, Dublin, 1991.

Admitted to the NSW Bar 1979, and Victorian Bar 1980.

Chairman, Victorian Bar Council, 1993-1994; Senior Vice-Chairman, 1992-1993; Honorary Treasurer, 1991-1992; Member, Ethics Committee, 1990-1991; Member, Law Reform Committee, 1989-1991; Member, Academic Committee, 1989-1990; Member, 1988-1994.

Director, Barristers' Chambers Ltd, 1991-1992.

President, Australian Bar Association, 1994-1995.

Member, Legal Practice Board of Victoria, 1996-1997.

Member, Victorian Legal Aid Commission, 1996-1997.

Member, Victorian Attorney-General's Law Reform Council, 1994-1996.

Member, Law Reform Council of Victoria, 1994-1996.

Member, Victorian Law Foundation, 1993-1996.

Member, County Court Rules Committee, 1987-1988.

Member, University of Melbourne Council, 2002-2005.

Chair, University of Melbourne Legislation Committee, 2004-2005.

Chair, Truganini Scholarships Committee, University of Melbourne, 2004-2005.

Member, Advisory Board for the Graduate Program in Intellectual Property Law, University of Melbourne, 2001-2003.

Chair, Independent Compensation Panel, Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne, 2001-2003.

Board Member, University of Melbourne Law School Foundation, 1997-2001.

Member, Ethics Committee, Royal Women's Hospital, 1994-1997.

Board Member, Australian Book Review, 1994-1997.

Member, Patents Committee, Royal Melbourne Hospital, 1988-1992.

Member, Faculty of Law Research Staff, University of Melbourne, 1982-1983.

COMPANION (AC) IN THE GENERAL DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Mr William Duncan (Bill) FERRIS AO, 2 Caledonian Road, Rose Bay NSW 2029
For service to the community through a range of philanthropic endeavours, as a leader in support of medical research, and to business and commerce through ongoing roles supporting Australian exports, venture capital and private equity.

Mr Ferris was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia in the Australia Day 1990 Honours List for his service to international trade and to industry. The following summarises his service and achievements since then.

Chairman, Garvan Institute of Medical Research, since 2001.

Established the Ferris Family Foundation, which provides philanthropic contributions to organisations involved in medical research, conservation, the arts and to youth.

Founding Patron, Nonprofit Fellowship Program, Harvard Club of Australia, since 2001.

Current Executive Chairman and Founding Principal, CHAMP Private Equity.

Current Member, VisAsia Council.

Chairman, AUSTAR United Communications, 1998-2001 and 2003-2005.

Chairman, Asia Pacific Council, Macquarie University, 1998-2001.

Director, Australian Institute of Management (NSW), 1998-2001.

Chairman, Australian Venture Capital Association, 1997.

Chairman, Austrade, 1988-1993.

Chairman ASCHAM Foundation, 1989-2000.

Executive Chairman, Australian Mezzanine Investments, 1987-2000.

Director, Tucker Seabrook, 1997-2005.

Director, Bradken Resources, until 2004.

Director, Penrice Soda Products, until 2004.

Director, Oldfields Holdings, 1999-2001.

Director, RAMS Home Loans, until 1999.

Director, Cuppa Cup Vineyards, 1995-1999.

Director, Austal (formerly Austal Ships), until 1994.

Director, Australian Trade Commission, 1987-1993.

COMPANION (AC) IN THE GENERAL DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Mr Lindsay Edward FOX AO, Toorak Vic 3142

For continued service to the transport and logistics industries, to business through the development and promotion of youth traineeships, and to the community through a range of philanthropic endeavours.

Mr Fox was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia in the Australia Day 1992 Honours List for his service to the transport industry and to the community. The following summarises his service and achievements since then.

Founder and non-executive Director, Fox Group Holdings Pty Ltd, since 1992.

Current Director, Premier Investments Ltd.

Director, Coles Myers, 1992-1995.

Co-Founder, National Transport Institute of Australia; transport and distribution industry training within Commonwealth apprentice system.

Director, Intermodal Transportation Institute, University of Denver USA, since 2001.

Chairman, National Employment and Training Taskforce, 1994-1997.

Founding Board Member, Committee of Melbourne, for many years until 1996.

Board Member, Sports and Tourism Youth Foundation.

Former Member, National Advisory Council on Suicide Prevention, for a brief time.

Former President, St Kilda Football Club; Patron.

Former Board Member, Eastern Airlines USA.

Former Board Member, Continental Airlines USA.

Former Board Member, Morrison Knudsen USA.

Former Board Member, Australian Sports Commission.

Current Patron-in-Chief, Royal Australian Army Transport Museum.

Other awards include:

Centenary Medal, 2001.

COMPANION (AC) IN THE GENERAL DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

His Excellency Rear Admiral Kevin John SCARCE AO CSC RANR,
Adelaide SA 5000

For distinguished contributions to Australia's defence industry through the provision of leadership and strategic advice on the development of naval capabilities, to maritime transport management, and to the people of South Australia.

Governor of South Australia (took the oath of office on 8 August 2007).

His Excellency was initially appointed a Member in the Military Division of the Order of Australia in The Queen's Birthday 2001 Honours List, and was then appointed an Officer in the Military Division in the Australia Day 2004 Honours List.

Adviser, Port Adelaide Maritime Corporation, 2006-2007.

Chief Executive, South Australian Government Defence Unit, 2004-2006.

Chairman, Defence Industry Advisory Board, 2004-2006.

Royal Australian Navy service includes:

Acting Under Secretary, Defence Materiel Organisation, 2003-2004; Head, Maritime Systems, 2000-2003.

Commander, Support - Navy, 1999-2000.

Commander, Logistics - Navy, 1999.

Commander, Naval Training, 1997-1999; Deputy Commander, 1997.

Commanding Officer, HMAS CERBERUS, 1995-1997.

Posted to the Office of the Naval Attaché, Washington, 1979-1982.

Joined the Royal Australian Navy in 1968, served on various deployments and held a range of staff positions until his retirement in 2004.

Former Chairman, Foundation Daw Park; the Foundation, founded in 1994, supports medical research and special projects at the Repatriation General Hospital, Adelaide, into conditions common to veterans and Australia's ageing communities; research is conducted into prostate cancer, memory disorders such as Alzheimer's Disease, rheumatoid arthritis and emphysema.

Other awards include:

Conspicuous Service Cross, 1994.