MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE GENERAL DIVISION

Father Paul Bernard GARDINER, PO Box 40, Penola SA 5277

For service to the community in the fields of education and religion, as Postulator for the Canonisation of Mary Mackillop, and to the Catholic Church in Australia.

Teacher of Religion, Latin and History, St Ignatius' College, Riverview Sydney; Philosophy and Greek Lecturer in seminaries, for 15 years.

Father Paul, in conjunction with Sister Maria Casey, made significant contributions to the international recognition of Australia's first Roman Catholic Saint, Mary MacKillop which began in the 1920s. Their archival research established the necessary historical evidence on the life of Mary MacKillop. Father Paul and Sister Maria also negotiated the extensive procedural processes required to establish the case for Canonisation to the Holy See. Pope Benedict XVI approved the Canonisation of Mary MacKillop to Sainthood on 19 February 2010.

Postulator for the Cause of the Canonisation of Mary MacKillop, 1985-2008; commenced work in 1983.

Author, Positio for the Cause of Mary Mackillop; the 'Positio' is a 1,500 page, 3 volumes of work on the life of Mary MacKillop, 50 copies of which were submitted to the Congregation of the Causes of Saints at the Vatican in 1989; the document paved the way for Mary MacKillop to be given the title of Venerable in 1992.

Author, Mary MacKillop: An extraordinary Australian, first published in 1993; this is the only authorised biography by the Vatican's Official Postulator for the cause of her sainthood, and has been reprinted 7 times.

Researched and documented the 'Positio' for identifying Mary MacKillop's first miracle in 1961 which was approved by the Vatican in 1993; this permitted the Beatification of Mary MacKillop in 1995.

Researched and documented the 'Positio' for Mary MacKillop's second miracle in 1993 which was approved by the Vatican in 2009; this approval completed the Case for the Canonisation of Mary MacKillop.

Congregational Member, Australian Province of the Society of Jesus, Catholic Church in Australia, for many years.

Chaplain, Mary MacKillop Penola Centre; and Member, St Aloysius Jesuit Community, since 1999.

Regional Secretary of the Jesuit Curia in Rome, 1978-1982.

Leadership roles in Australia, Italy and Ireland.
