

MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Royal Australian Navy

Warrant Officer Timothy Joseph HOLLIDAY, NSW

For meritorious service to the Royal Australian Navy in the area of workforce and personnel career development within the Communications and Information Systems category.

Warrant Officer Holliday has provided leadership and outstanding professional knowledge to advance the field of communications, workforce planning and training, contributing significantly to the increased readiness and overall effectiveness of the Communications and Information Systems category in the Royal Australian Navy.

Chief Petty Officer Arron Cameron WATSON, Qld

For meritorious service in the field of marine engineering in the Royal Australian Navy.

Chief Petty Officer Watson is an inspirational leader providing outstanding service in the field of naval engineering. This service has included the development of technical publications in support of the introduction into service of the Armidale Class Patrol Boats, his excellence as a mentor and trainer for a significant proportion of the Patrol Boat crews and service as a crew member in both Hydrographic and Patrol Boats over a continuous period of six years.

Australian Army

Captain A,

For meritorious service.

Details not available at the request of the Department of Defence.

Warrant Officer Class One Stephen Michael GREENALL, NT

For meritorious service as the Artificer Sergeant Major of the 5th/7th Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment, as Maintenance Manager of Joint Logistic Unit North, and as Electrical and Mechanical Engineering Warrant Officer of the 1st Brigade.

Warrant Officer Greenall has demonstrated a level of professionalism and technical competence that has produced outstanding results. Serving with distinction in three demanding appointments, he questioned accepted norms and implemented local reforms to deliver greater efficiency for Defence. His efforts have contributed significantly to the operational success of the 1st Brigade.

Warrant Officer Class One H,

For meritorious service to the Special Operations Command in regimental leadership roles.

Details not available at the request of the Department of Defence.

MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Warrant Officer Class One David Ross LEHR, ACT

For meritorious service as the Regimental Sergeant Major of the 2nd/10th Field Regiment, Joint Task Force 635 Operation ANODE Rotation 13, and the 1st Field Regiment.

Warrant Officer Lehr has provided meritorious service as the Regimental Sergeant Major for the 2nd/10th Field Regiment, Joint Task Force 635 Operation ANODE Rotation 13, and the 1st Field Regiment. Warrant Officer Lehr has demonstrated outstanding professionalism and inspirational leadership in his sustained efforts in preparing soldiers and units to deploy on operations. His capacity and willingness to undertake additional tasks are exceptional and, through his example, have earned wide respect within the Australian Army.

Warrant Officer Class One John Robert PICKETT, ACT

For meritorious service as the Drill Wing Sergeant Major, Royal Military College Duntroon and as the Regimental Sergeant Major of the 41st Battalion, the Royal New South Wales Regiment, and the 2nd Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment.

Warrant Officer Pickett's steadfast professionalism, dedication to duty, outstanding leadership and moral courage have had a lasting impression on hundreds of officers and soldiers. His guidance and compassion to young officers and soldiers should have a significant long-term benefit to the Australian Defence Force. His performance is in the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Infantry Corps and the Australian Army.

Warrant Officer Class One Richard Alfred VERRALL, Qld

For meritorious service as the Regimental Sergeant Major of the 2nd/17th Battalion, Royal New South Wales Regiment and the 7th Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment.

Warrant Officer Verrall's commitment, personal example and extraordinary leadership have been outstanding and instrumental in building capability through the careful development and training of soldiers and his acceptance of extra responsibility. As a senior soldier his loyalty, work ethic and provision of support to the chain of command have been exemplary. Warrant Officer Verrall's contributions are of the highest order and are a credit to himself, the Australian Army and the Australian Defence Force.

Royal Australian Air Force

Wing Commander Rudy Thomas DARVILL, SA

For meritorious service in leadership, development and sustainment of the Maritime Intelligence, Surveillance Reconnaissance and Response capability.

Wing Commander Darvill's exceptional service in a series of demanding leadership and development roles at Number 92 Wing has been instrumental in the successful development and sustainment of the Maritime Intelligence, Surveillance Reconnaissance and Response capability within the Royal Australian Air Force. His outstanding efforts, sustained over more than a decade, have allowed Number 92 Wing to respond effectively to a range of complex challenges in an environment of uncertainty and high operational tempo.

MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Warrant Officer Russell George KENNEDY CSC, Vic

For meritorious service in the field of Reserve training development and management within Director General Reserves - Air Force Branch.

Warrant Officer Kennedy is an outstanding airman who has demonstrated selfless dedication and loyalty. His engagement in a range of Reserve training activities has included managing Air Force Reserve establishment data and development of a system to record the civil skills and employment information of Australian Defence Force reservists. His devoted service has resulted in achieving Air Force intent on many occasions.

Squadron Leader Ravinder SINGH, NSW

For meritorious service in the field of airlift capability support.

Squadron Leader Singh is an outstanding officer who has displayed selfless dedication, inspirational leadership and boundless energy and enthusiasm in raising project technical airworthiness management standards. He has materially contributed to the safe and effective delivery of new and upgraded capability through his involvement with technical airworthiness and project management in support of the Royal Australian Air Force airlift capability.