MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE GENERAL DIVISION

Mrs Mollie Drage HOLST, Torsvei 41A, N-3040 Drammen, Norway

For service to veterans and their families as a voluntary carer of war graves of World War II Australian airmen in Norway, and through the organisation of Anzac Day services.

Mrs Holst attends to the war graves of WWII Australian RAAF servicemen buried in Norway, particularly those located in south eastern Norway in the towns of Sylling, Sande and Larvik, and also in Oslo. She visits the graves on the anniversaries of the servicemen's birthdays and deaths and lays a wreath for each airman. Of the 27 identified airmen, Mrs Holst has personal connection with the graves and families in Australia of 12; she has been unable to track down the families of the remaining airmen. She provides surviving members of each of the airman's families with regular updates of Anzac Day services held in Norway and photographs of the resting sites and headstones of the airmen. She has hosted a number of Australian relatives of these airmen and has taken them to the grave sites of their relatives. Mrs Holst coordinates with local Norwegian Councils to ensure that the graves are kept in good order. She also includes the graves of British and Canadian airmen in her 'pilgrimages'. She is also involved with Anzac Day ceremonies that are held in Norway.
