

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

I have been deeply saddened to hear of the continued bushfires and their devastating impact across many parts of Australia.

My thanks go out to the emergency services, and those who put their own lives in danger to help communities in need.

Prince Philip and I send our thoughts and prayers to all Australians at this difficult time.

ELIZABETH R.