7 Eligible service

- (1) For paragraph 4(1)(a) of the Australian Operational Service Medal Regulation, service is eligible service if:
- (a) the service is given by a civilian, as defined in section 2 of the Australian Operational Service Medal Regulation, on deployment during the period of the International Coalition Against Terrorism; and
 - (b) the service occurs on 30 days during one or more such deployments, whether or not the service continues throughout the whole day and whether or not the 30 days are continuous; and
 - (c) the conditions determined for the service in section 8 of this instrument are met.
- (2) The service mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) of this section may be given on one or more operations that comprise the International Coalition Against Terrorism.
- (3) If a civilian gave service of a kind mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) of this section, but did not satisfy paragraph (1)(b) of this section because the civilian died or was evacuated due to service-related injury, illness or disability, the service given is taken to have occurred on 30 days during the deployment.

8 Conditions

For paragraph 4(3)(b) of the Australian Operational Service Medal Regulation, and paragraph 7(1)(c) of this instrument, the following conditions are determined in relation to service:

- (a) the service must be given while the civilian giving the service is assigned for duty (however described) on one or more operations that comprise the International Coalition Against Terrorism; and
- (b) a civilian must not have been awarded, nor be eligible to be awarded, an Australian Service Medal in relation to the same service on a deployment during which the service is given; and
- (c) the service must involve the performance of Operational Duties; and
- (d) no other period of eligible service can have been completed.

- Notes:
- 1. The effect of paragraph (c) of this section is to exclude service involving non-operational duties such as: participation in training activities, exercises and conferences (with no planning objectives); liaison visits; lessons learnt/fact finding activities; and command/staff visits.
 - 2. The effect of paragraph (d) of this section is that a civilian may be awarded only one Australian Operational Service Medal (Civilian) with the Clasp International Coalition Against Terrorism. There is no medallic recognition for additional periods of eligible service on one or more operations that comprise the International Coalition Against Terrorism.

9 Ribbon for medal and form of clasp

- (1) For section 12 of the Australian Operational Service Medal Regulation, the ribbon denoting the standard civilian ribbon is 32 millimetres wide and has a central purple stripe, flanked by gold stripes of equal width, edged with green stripes.
- (2) For section 12 of the Australian Operational Service Medal Regulation, the clasp for the International Coalition Against Terrorism is in the form of a metal clasp of antique-silver finish bearing the inscription 'ICAT'.
