

MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Royal Australian Navy

Warrant Officer Dane Lawson FIELD

For meritorious performance of duty in the field of Naval Engineering.

Warrant Officer Field demonstrated sustained meritorious performance across multiple Naval Engineering roles of considerable responsibility. A gifted technician, leader and administrator, Chief Petty Officer Field contributed significantly to the provision of superior platform reliability across several ships and a broad range of operations. He trained and inspired a significant cohort of technically skilled and highly motivated technicians deeply bonded to Our Values.

Chief Petty Officer Janelle Margaret SCRASE

For meritorious service in the field of personnel management in the Royal Australian Navy.

Chief Petty Officer Scrase consistently demonstrated exemplary service to the Royal Australian Navy in challenging and complex personnel management roles. Her professional standards and dedication to duty have significantly contributed to the achievement of operational preparedness of deploying Task Groups and enhanced the reputation of the Royal Australian Navy amongst regional Defence partners.

Captain Troy VAN TIENHOVEN RAN

For meritorious service to the Royal Australian Navy in the fields of Maritime Command and Training.

Exceptional leadership, professional excellence and superior judgment characterised Captain Van Tienhoven's outstanding service as Commanding Officer of HMAS Parramatta and Captain Sea Training. His steadfast command and leadership during several complex maritime presence deployments and operations in the Indo-Pacific region and conduct of Fleet work up programs directly enhanced Australia's national reputation as a capable and reliable security partner.

Warrant Officer Tagan James WRIGHT

For meritorious service in the field of maritime Communications and Information Systems capability support.

Warrant Officer Wright consistently demonstrated the highest professional standards through a series of demanding sea and shore postings. His dedication and professional mastery were pivotal in the introduction and sustainment of Fleet Information Warfare related capabilities and in delivering a Communications and Information Systems workforce able to provide highly assured and sustainable services to support joint and multi-national maritime operations.

MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Australian Army

Warrant Officer Class One Bradley Norman FOSTER CSM

For meritorious service in Instructor and Company Sergeant Major appointments at the Royal Military College Duntroon; the Officer Cadet School of New Zealand; and the 6th Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment.

Warrant Officer Class One Foster has perpetuated the highest levels of leadership, training system design and mentorship of trainees, soldiers and officers in Australia and New Zealand. His sustained performance over many postings has continuously and significantly enhanced the effectiveness of the current force and future leadership of both armies, and is in keeping with the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Infantry Corps, the Australian Army, and the Australian Defence Force.

Captain Dennis Ralph MAGENNIS

For meritorious service as the Manager of the Australian Army Military Intelligence Museum, and as the Regimental Sergeant Major.

For meritorious service as the Manager of the Australian Army Military Intelligence Museum, and as the Regimental Sergeant Major of both the Defence Intelligence Training Centre and the Australian Intelligence Corps, in support of training and the protection of Army's heritage. Through his commitment and outstanding professionalism, Captain Magennis has delivered specialist training to a generation of Defence intelligence professionals.

Warrant Officer Class One Lee MALONEY

For meritorious service in support of the Australian Army CH-47 Chinook capability.

Warrant Officer Maloney has made an outstanding contribution to the Australian Army Chinook capability. He is the Australian Army's most experienced Aircrewman Technician recognised for his dedication across aviation maintenance, instructional, operational, and commercial appointments. He has demonstrated exceptional courage, deep technical expertise and commercial acumen to enable and enhance the Australian Chinook capability during an extremely demanding period of continuous operations and aircraft type transition.

Warrant Officer Class One Mark Jason NEWELL

For meritorious service as a Warrant Officer Class One, Operator Unit Supply serving in Special Operations Command and Army Headquarters.

Warrant Officer Class One Mark Newell has provided outstanding service to the Australian Army over many years in both trade and technical management appointments. His superior leadership, outstanding trade knowledge and tireless dedication to improving Army and Defence has contributed to superior outcomes, particularly in the areas of logistic systems design, logistics compliance, training, and support to operational capability.

MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Warrant Officer Class One David Carl POULSEN

For meritorious service as the Artificer Sergeant Major of the 7th Combat Service Support Battalion and Artificer Sergeant Major for the Land Maintenance System within the Directorate of Technical Regulation and Evaluation - Army.

Warrant Officer Class One Poulsen provided dedicated and meritorious service in a number of technical Warrant Officer positions. He has consistently demonstrated outstanding leadership, innovation, initiative and devotion to duty, enhancing the land maintenance system across the joint land force. His contributions to maintenance planning, equipment management and strategic guidance ensures that the future maintenance system will deliver a transformational step change for technical maintenance, enhancing Defence capability.

Warrant Officer Class One Andrew Stephen REMIN CSM

For meritorious service in ab initio Officer Training for the Australian Defence Force.

Warrant Officer Class One Remin applied exceptional professionalism and superb military mastery for more than a decade in his support of impressionable junior members of the Australian Defence Force in their critical formative years. Through superior emotional intelligence, exemplary military behaviour, and inspirational leadership; he has made a major contribution to development of the young officers undergoing ab initio training, playing a key role in positively influencing the cultural development, values, and professional standards of several generations of future Military Leaders.