MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Royal Australian Navy

Warrant Officer Frederick Lindsay CAMPBELL, NSW
For meritorious service in the field of aviation maintenance and for leadership as a Warrant Officer in HMA Ships Cerberus and Creswell.

Warrant Officer Campbell has distinguished himself as an exemplar of the Royal Australian Navy's values throughout his career. He has dedicated himself to his profession as an aviation maintainer and to the service of others, displaying selfless devotion to duty and inspirational leadership. His professional ethos, loyalty and commitment have been of the highest standard, and he has achieved outstanding results for Sailors' leadership training, positively influencing personnel who will serve in the defence of Australia, now and well into the future.

Warrant Officer Michael David CONNORS, Vic
For meritorious service as the Defence Administrative Assistant in Dili, East Timor, the senior Naval Police Coxswain at HMAS Cerberus and Ship's Warrant Officer in HMAS Sydney.

Warrant Officer Connors has had a distinguished career performing a variety of duties enhancing Navy discipline and the Royal Australian Navy's standing in the community. His work with the East Timorese Defence Force, his co-operation with Victoria Police and families in HMAS Cerberus and his dedication to ship and community projects while serving in HMAS Sydney have been outstanding. His dedication, discipline and capacity to engage with organisations across and beyond the Royal Australian Navy are in the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Navy.

Commander Brian Oswald NITSCHINSK RAN, Vic
For meritorious service in the field of engineering in the Royal Australian Navy.

Commander Nitschinsk has made a significant contribution to engineering and engineering training in the Royal Australian Navy. In many capacities and throughout his service, he has devoted himself to his profession and striven for continual improvement and positive engineering outcomes. Commander Nitschinsk's contribution to naval engineering capability has been outstanding and in the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Navy and the Australian Defence Force.

Any enquiries regarding the above awards should be directed to Defence Media Liaison on (02)6265 3343
Australian Army

Warrant Officer Class One David John ALLEN, NT
For meritorious service as the Regimental Sergeant Major of 7th Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment; Regimental Sergeant Major, Mentoring and Reconstruction Task Force One; and Regimental Sergeant Major, Combat Training Centre.

Warrant Officer Allen has displayed inspirational leadership as the Regimental Sergeant Major of 7th Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment, Mentoring and Reconstruction Task Force One, and the Combat Training Centre. His personal efforts directly supported raising, preparation and deployment of the 7th Battalion and had a profound impact on the Combat Training Centre's preparations for operations.

Warrant Officer Class One Steven John DI TULLIO, Qld
For meritorious service as Regimental Sergeant Major of the 6th Engineer Support Regiment, the 2nd Combat Engineer Regiment and the School of Military Engineering.

Warrant Officer Di Tullio's performance as Regimental Sergeant Major of the 6th Engineer Support Regiment, the 2nd Combat Engineer Regiment and the School of Military Engineering has been outstanding. His development of combat engineers, leadership and advice in barracks, the field and on operations have provided an enduring influence to all who have served with him.

Warrant Officer Class One Christopher Walton MAYFIELD, NT
For meritorious service as Master Gunner Proof and Experimental Establishment Graytown and as the Regimental Sergeant Major 8th/12th Regiment, the Royal Regiment of Australian Artillery.

Warrant Officer Mayfield's leadership, professionalism and work ethic have been exceptional. He has excelled in the maintenance of the highest technical standards and demonstrated foresight and initiative in managing the seamless introduction of new Field Artillery trades. These achievements have enhanced the capability of the Royal Australian Artillery. Warrant Officer Mayfield's ability to motivate and inspire others is commendable, and he is widely respected among those with whom he has served.
MEDAL (OAM) OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA IN THE MILITARY DIVISION

Warrant Officer Class One Paul Marcus RICHARDSON, Vic
For meritorious service as Regimental Sergeant Major of the 1st Aviation Regiment, the 3rd Combat Service Support Battalion, Army School of Ordnance and the Royal Australian Army Ordnance Corps.

Warrant Officer Richardson's leadership, professionalism and work ethic instilled a strong leadership, operational and training culture in all units he served in. He raised regimental standards, fostered morale and created strong unit identities through the introduction of new training regimes, enforcing customs and traditions and empowering the non-commissioned officers. Warrant Officer Richardson's leadership has been exemplary and he has demonstrated a passion for soldier welfare management and the development of Ordnance Corps capability.

Major Ann Elizabeth SHERREN, NT
For meritorious service as a Regimental Sergeant Major at Adelaide Logistics Battalion, a Military Support Officer at Defence Community Organisation - Darwin, and Second-in-Command of 1st Combat Signal Regiment.

Major Sherren's 40 years' service as Regimental Sergeant Major, Military Support Officer and Regimental Second-in-Command has demonstrated her professionalism and strong adherence to the Army ethos. Through her initiative and commitment, she cemented the importance of welfare services and direct family support for deployed personnel. As the Officer Commanding - Rear Details, Major Sherren provided outstanding support to the 1st Combat Signal Regiment through her leadership, commitment and attention to detail.

Royal Australian Air Force

Wing Commander Stephen Gareth CHAPPELL, NSW
For meritorious service to the Royal Australian Air Force in the field of Air Combat.

Wing Commander Chappell's superior leadership, drive and vision have been instrumental in significantly improving the training and standard of fighter pilot graduates. He has also ensured the relevance and excellence of the Air Combat capability, both now and into the future, through his professionalism and initiative in the creation of the Air Combat Capability Development Roadmap, which has been endorsed by Chief of Air Force.

Group Captain Ian Andrew NESBITT, USA
For meritorious service in the field of Air Combat Capability support.

Group Captain Nesbitt has performed tirelessly in support of the Royal Australian Air Force Tactical Fighter capability, specifically the F/A-18 A/B Classic Hornet. He has made profound improvements to the engineering management systems supporting the tactical fighter capability, and his contributions and innovative programs have contributed to the longevity of the Hornet fleet and ensured the operation of the capability out to the planned withdrawal date.

Any enquiries regarding the above awards should be directed to Defence Media Liaison on (02)6265 3343
Flight Sergeant Matthew Mark RUSH, Qld
For meritorious service in the field of Communication Information Systems.

Flight Sergeant Rush has demonstrated strategic leadership and dedication to the Air Force Communication Information System capability. His extensive communication systems knowledge allowed him to implement and sustain critical command and control systems to support two operational deployments and his determination, vision and expertise have led to the establishment of a functional organisational model in preparation for the introduction of cryptographic intensive aircraft platforms.

Wing Commander Stewart Mathew SEENEY, NSW
For meritorious service as the Aviation Safety Officer at Number 81 Wing and Staff Officer Airworthiness and Capability Management at Headquarters Air Combat Group.

Wing Commander Seeney is an exceptional officer who has delivered outstanding service during his tenure as the Number 81 Wing Aviation Safety Officer and Staff Officer Airworthiness and Capability Management. His dedication, devotion to duty and application of professional mastery have reformed safety and risk management of Australia's air combat operational capability.