MEMBER (AM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Royal Australian Navy

Captain Nicholas Kim BRAMWELL RAN, NSW
For exceptional service to the Royal Australian Navy as the Director International Fleet Review and in significant command and leadership positions.

Captain Bramwell's consistently distinguished and exceptional service over many years has been critical to the effectiveness of the Royal Australian Navy, particularly in the field of amphibious training and, more recently, in the conduct of the Navy International Fleet Review for which he was directly responsible for the high profile success of the event. Captain Bramwell's achievements are in line with the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Navy and the Australian Defence Force.

Captain Raymond John LEGGATT CSC RAN, NSW
For exceptional service to the Royal Australian Navy across the fields of capability management, training, command and operations.

Captain Leggatt has provided exceptional service across diverse Defence disciplines. He has excelled in command of operations and major exercises, and worked skilfully and tirelessly across Defence to position the Royal Australian Navy to meet and to advance the evolving demands of our shared future. The authority he has displayed in each of these roles is well recognised across the Australian Defence Force and is testament to his dedication, commitment and professionalism, and is in keeping with the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Navy.

Australian Army

Warrant Officer David Malcolm ASHLEY OAM, ACT
For exceptional service as the Regimental Sergeant Major of Forces Command, the Regimental Sergeant Major of Combined Team - Uruzgan, and the Regimental Sergeant Major of the Army.

Warrant Officer Ashley's steadfast professionalism, dedication to duty, outstanding leadership and moral courage has had a lasting impression on thousands of officers and soldiers. This lasting effect is of significant long-term benefit to the Australian Defence Force. His performance in three of the most senior Regimental Sergeant Major appointments in the Australian Army is in the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Infantry Corps and the Australian Army.

Brigadier Gregory Charles BILTON CSC, Qld
For exceptional service in the fields of Army modernisation as Director General Development and Plans Army, and command as Commander 7th Brigade.

Brigadier Bilton has provided exceptional service to the Australian Army in the field of Army modernisation. With his systematic and methodical approach to capability he was instrumental in developing, educating and merging through all capability decision making in Army Headquarters and the wider Defence community. Brigadier Bilton's empathy and personal commitment when leading disaster relief efforts as well as the management of the welfare of his soldiers and their families have brought great credit upon himself and the Australian Army.
MEMBER (AM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Lieutenant Colonel Brian Robert CAMPBELL, ACT
For exceptional performance of duty as the Staff Officer Fatalities within the Chief of Staff Branch - Army Headquarters.

Lieutenant Colonel Campbell's commitment, leadership and dedication to duty in a highly emotive and often complex environment have ensured that the Australian Army has delivered the highest level of support to the families of those killed in action in Afghanistan. His commitment and his empathy for each of the families of the 40 Australian soldiers killed in action have also helped the families understand something of the work and conditions their loved ones experienced while deployed on operations in the service of the nation.

Brigadier Peter Edmond DANIEL CSC, ACT
For exceptional service as Director General Supply Chain, Joint Logistics Command and Colonel Support at Headquarters Land Command-Army.

Brigadier Daniel's exceptional service to logistic support to the Australian Army and the Australia Defence Force has been superb. His outstanding command, leadership and management of complex support activities have been critical to the success of the Australian Defence Force, achieving a range of vital operational activities and logistic business reform initiatives. His performance has brought great credit upon himself and is in keeping with the finest traditions of the Australian Defence Force and the Australian Army.

Brigadier Stephen Hugh PORTER, Qld
For exceptional service to the Australian Army as the Assistant Commander (Training), 2nd Division and Commander of the 11th Brigade.

Brigadier Porter has provided exceptional service to capability generation within the Army Reserve as the Assistant Commander (Training), Headquarters 2nd Division and as the Commander 11th Brigade. His foresight, leadership and commitment to cultural change have facilitated exemplar capability developments within the 2nd Division. Under his command, the 11th Brigade has been at the forefront of leading new initiatives as part of the 2nd Division's commitment to the Australian Army's concept of Total Force and Plan BEERSHEBA.

Brigadier Marcus Allan THOMPSON, ACT
For exceptional service as Commanding Officer 3rd Combat Signals Regiment, a Defence representative while seconded to the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet, and Director General Special Operations Capability.

Brigadier Thompson has provided exceptional service to the Australian Army in demanding roles within the Special Operations environment, as the Commanding Officer of the 3rd Combat Signals Regiment and during a secondment to the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet. His exemplary leadership in the fields of modernisation, capability enhancement and strategic planning in these key appointments has brought great credit upon the Australian Army and the Australian Defence Force.
Royal Australian Air Force

Warrant Officer Dimitri Alexandre DUFOR, NSW
For exceptional service to the Royal Australian Air Force as the maintenance lead in the United States Resident Project Team for a F/A-18 Hornet upgrade, and Warrant Officer Engineer of Number 3 Squadron.

Warrant Officer Dufour's exceptional leadership, outstanding professionalism and technical mastery have directly enhanced Air Combat Group's F/A-18 Hornet capability in support of force generation, domestic operations and overseas exercises. His outstanding achievements over twenty years have delivered significant capability enhancements to the F/A-18 fleet, and are in keeping with the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Air Force.

Air Commodore Henrik EHLERS, ACT
For exceptional service as Director Coordination - Air Force, Director General Defence Force Recruiting and Director General Culture Reviews Response from 2008 to 2013.

Air Commodore Ehlers has provided exemplary leadership and strategic vision in his unwavering devotion to enhancing the reputation of the Australian Defence Force. His innate situational awareness and exceptional resourcefulness have inspired him to provide great care and compassion to current and former members of the Australian Defence Force. His outstanding devotion to duty, creativity and drive are in the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Air Force and the Australian Defence Force.

Group Captain Sarah Jane PEARSON CSM, ACT
For exceptional service to the Australian Defence Force in the field of logistics.

Group Captain Pearson has made an exceptional and lasting contribution over several postings in the field of logistics. Through inspirational leadership, outstanding professionalism and unswerving devotion to the Australian Defence Force, she has produced improved operational aircraft availability at a reduced cost, and significantly enhanced the operation of Jindalee Over the Horizon Radar Network. Her extraordinary professionalism has been of the highest calibre and embodies the Royal Australian Air Force values.

Air Commodore Michael Christian WALKINGTON, ACT
For exceptional service to the Australian Defence Force in the fields of telecommunications acquisition and sustainment, capability enablement, and Australian air traffic management.

Air Commodore Walkington has revitalised telecommunications acquisition and sustainment in the Royal Australian Air Force, provided key support to several military capabilities critical to Defence, and set the foundation for the collaborative development of the new Australian Air Traffic Management System between Defence and Airservices Australia. Through inspirational leadership and unswerving dedication to duty, Air Commodore Walkington has left a most positive legacy that should endure for decades.