

MEMBER (AM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Royal Australian Navy

Rear Admiral Mark Gerard CAMPBELL CSC RAN, ACT

For exceptional service as Head, Navy Capability and as a senior leader in the Royal Australian Navy aviation community.

Rear Admiral Campbell has provided exceptional service to the Royal Australian Navy's aviation capability and capability development. He has done so in operational flying, training and instruction, acquisition, sustainment and command positions. Throughout his career he has harnessed his deep knowledge of aviation naval warfare for the benefit of the Navy, successfully managing complex capability development matters and demonstrating determined, inspirational leadership in difficult circumstances.

Captain Brett CHANDLER RAN, NSW

For exceptional service to the Australian Defence Force, for peacekeeping operations with the United Nations, Command of HMAS Creswell, dedication to Navy leadership training, and as Commander of Shore Force between 2008 and 2014.

Captain Chandler's exceptional service has enhanced Navy's reputation strategically through his inspirational leadership with the United Nations and nationally through his fostering stronger relationships with the local indigenous community as Commanding Officer of HMAS Creswell. His devotion to leadership education has achieved cost reductions of $500,000, yet set best practice standards in the calibre and ethos of leaders that will serve Australia in the defence of the nation.

Commodore Adam Lloyd GRUNSELL CSC RAN, ACT

For exceptional performance of duty in the field of Navy warship maintenance and support.

Commodore Grunsell's consistent and exceptional performance throughout a succession of postings in the area of maintenance and support for the Royal Australian Navy's warship fleet has underpinned successful reforms and improvements of great value. His clear strategic thinking, compassion for people and courage to tackle complex reforms and challenges are outstanding. His conduct as a leader is of the highest calibre, exemplifying Navy's values and signature behaviours, and is in the finest traditions of the Royal Australian Navy and the Australian Defence Force.

MEMBER (AM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Australian Army

Brigadier Wayne Gregory BUDD CSC, ACT

For exceptional service as Director General Headquarters Joint Operations Command Project and Commander of the Counter Improvised Explosive Device Task Force.

Brigadier Budd provided exceptional service in delivering the joint command and control headquarters capability and in countering improvised explosive devices. His leadership and management of Defence's first public-private partnership project delivered a world-class joint facility supporting world-wide operations. His leadership, energy and drive delivered a range of innovative and effective counter measures to improvised explosive devices, enhancing the force protection of deployed forces and significantly reducing Australian casualties.

Lieutenant Colonel G

For exceptional service in officer career management, development of strategic capability, and for command and leadership in the Special Air Service Regiment.

Lieutenant Colonel G's visionary leadership in the Special Air Service Regiment has directly led to the Special Operations community being viewed as the force of choice by Government for sensitive and strategic missions. His exceptional performance across a range of key positions is in keeping with the finest traditions of the Special Operations Command, the Australian Army and the Australian Defence Force.

Brigadier Peter Campbell GATES CSM, ACT

For exceptional performance of duty as Director General Defence Education and Training, Director General Defence Learning Branch, and Commandant Australian Command and Staff College.

Brigadier Gates has pioneered the implementation of a number of complex enterprise-wide training and human resource reforms, and changes to organisational structures in the Australian Defence College and Defence People Group. He has substantially reformed the delivery of joint military and Australian Public Service education and training, resulting in significant savings and capability efficiencies. His exemplary leadership, strategic acumen, remarkable vision and meritorious devotion to duty have earned him wide respect and created an enduring culture of continuous improvement and excellence.

Brigadier Darren Scott NAUMANN, ACT

For exceptional service as Director General Capital Facilities and Infrastructure, Infrastructure Division, Defence Support and Reform Group, Department of Defence.

Brigadier Naumann has consistently demonstrated exceptional professional skills, judgement, leadership and dedication to duty in the area of facilities and infrastructure project development and delivery. His outstanding achievements have been a result of his exceptional leadership qualities and his proven ability to achieve key outcomes in the development and delivery of the major capital facilities program.

MEMBER (AM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Royal Australian Air Force

Group Captain Fiona Dorothy DOWSE CSC, ACT

For exceptional service to the Royal Australian Air Force in senior personnel management and international engagement.

Group Captain Dowse is an officer of impeccable character whose inspirational dedication to duty since 2007 has significantly shaped Air Force senior personnel management, whilst her political prowess has seen international engagement developed into a genuine capability force multiplier. Her exceptional contribution in highly demanding and politically sensitive appointments has patently advanced the Royal Australian Air Force's standing amongst its allies and left a most positive lasting legacy that is in the finest traditions of the Australian Defence Force.

Air Vice-Marshal William Francis HENMAN OAM, ACT

For exceptional service to the Australian Defence Force in coalition planning, command and control of joint air operations, and strategic capability development.

Air Vice-Marshal Henman has made an exceptional contribution to the Australian Defence Force in several demanding appointments since 2007. He is an extraordinary senior officer whose inspirational leadership and unswerving dedication to duty in a succession of politically challenging and highly complex roles have advanced the Royal Australian Air Force's reputation through the planning of coalition operations; improvements in the command and control of joint air operations; and enhancements to strategic capability development in a number of key emerging technologies.

Air Commodore Warren George McDONALD CSC, NSW

For exceptional performance of duty as Officer Commanding Number 92 Wing, Director General Capability Planning - Air Force, and Commander of Air Mobility Group.

Air Commodore McDonald has made an exceptional, enduring contribution to the Australian Defence Force in several important areas such as maritime and overland intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance; strategic capability development; and air mobility operations. His inspirational leadership, conspicuous drive, outstanding devotion to his people and extraordinary dedication to the Royal Australian Air Force in several demanding postings since 2009 have brought great credit upon himself, and are in the finest traditions of the Australian Defence Force.

MEDAL (OAM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Royal Australian Navy

Petty Officer Amanda Louise McGRATH, NSW

For meritorious service to the Royal Australian Navy in the field of Logistics support.

Petty Officer McGrath has demonstrated unswerving dedication to the provision of Naval Logistics support achieving the highest order of logistics preparedness to meet new and emergent operational capability requirements. Through unstinting effort and personal sacrifice over a number of years, she improved the responsiveness, reach and flexibility of the Naval Supply Chain, and also played a pivotal leadership role in the deployment and sustainment of deployed capabilities.

Commander Graeme Bruce PEDLEY CSM RANR, NSW

For meritorious service as Deputy Commander Mine Warfare, Clearance Diving, Hydrographic, Meteorological and Patrol Force, and Chief of Staff Amphibious and Afloat Support Group.

Commander Pedley has executed his duties in a complex and dynamic environment over an extended period of time in several key positions. He has successfully led the introduction of new capability and fostered current capability to provide an enduring Royal Australian Navy operational capacity. Commander Pedley's mentoring of junior leaders has instilled them with values and attributes that will see them become highly effective leaders of tomorrow's Navy.

Commander Roderick Charles ROBINSON RANR, NSW

For meritorious service in the field of leadership, cultural change and organisational transformation, through the introduction and development of executive coaching within Navy.

Commander Robinson's meritorious service has seen him at the forefront of Navy's leadership development since 2003. His strategic insight, inspirational leadership and outstanding work ethic in developing, implementing and sustaining the Navy Leadership Coaching Program has contributed to significant cultural transformation for Navy.

Australian Army

Major B

For meritorious service within Special Operations Command over an extended period of service.

Major B has made an exceptional contribution to the refinement of welfare operating procedures and safety related governance, to personally enhance, and in some cases fundamentally alter, the way in which units conduct business. Major B's dedication to duty and commitment to service has been of the highest order and in keeping with the finest traditions of Special Operations Command, the Australian Army and the Australian Defence Force.

MEDAL (OAM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Australian Army (cont)

Warrant Officer Class One Brian James HEENAN, ACT

For meritorious service as Regimental Sergeant Major of the 1st Armoured Regiment, and as the Career Advisor Royal Australian Armoured Corps, Directorate of Soldier Career Management-Army.

Warrant Officer Class One Heenan is an inspirational soldier who has provided dedicated service to the Army. He has made a significant and enduring personal and professional contribution to the soldiers of the Royal Australian Armoured Corps, and the modernisation of Army's structures during a period of challenging and fundamental change. Warrant Officer Heenan's contributions are of the highest order and in keeping with the traditions of the Australian Army and the Australian Defence Force.

Lieutenant Colonel Gordon Ross LAMBIE CSM, ACT

For meritorious performance of duty as the inaugural Commanding Officer of the Australian Army Band, the Director of Music - Army and the Commanding Officer of the Defence Force School of Music.

Lieutenant Colonel Lambie has been pivotal in shaping the future of Army music. He introduced a comprehensive re-development of technical skills whilst concurrently shaping and implementing a thorough unit restructure. He skilfully managed and led a complex workforce in an integrated environment whilst maintaining morale and delivering an internationally renowned musical capability for the Australian Army.

Major John Leslie MUIR, NSW

For meritorious performance of duty as Staff Officer Grade Two Supply Chain Management at Headquarters Forces Command.

Major Muir is an extremely diligent officer and leader whose performance has delivered remarkable results for Forces Command and Army. His expertise in Supply Chain Management has been employed to excellent effect and is reflected in several initiatives that have rapidly improved stocktake planning, conduct and supply chain management. His efforts have contributed to the reputation of Army and Defence inventory management culture and are testament to his professionalism, dedication and initiative.

MEDAL (OAM) IN THE MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ORDER OF AUSTRALIA

Royal Australian Air Force

Warrant Officer Wade Charles GODBEE, Qld

For meritorious service as a Maintenance Manager in the Royal Australian Air Force.

Warrant Officer Godbee has provided exemplary service to the Royal Australian Air Force over a 36 year career. He continues to devote much of his private life to the Reserve forces, and has been largely responsible for their innovative support through the retirement of the F-111 and successful evolution to the new F/A-18F Super Hornet. He is an exceptional Aircraft Maintenance Manager, who has displayed superior foresight, tireless devotion, and outstanding professionalism that has provided enduring benefit to the air power of Australia.

Flight Sergeant Brett Andrew HOOPER, Qld

For meritorious service to the Royal Australian Air Force in the field of technical excellence in the development and sustainment of the E-7A Airborne Early Warning and Control aircraft and the KC 30A Multi Role Tanker Transport aircraft capabilities.

Flight Sergeant Hooper has displayed superior leadership, extraordinary dedication, and conspicuous skill in the innovative development of several capability enhancements for the E-7A Airborne Early Warning and Control and KC-30A Multi Role Tanker Transport capabilities at Number 2 and Number 33 Squadron. Through his selflessness, resourcefulness, and drive he has made a significant contribution to operational capability and the long-term sustainability of surveillance response and air mobility capability for the Royal Australian Air Force.